General Information

The purpose of The American Legion of Iowa Essay Contest is to develop a deeper knowledge and appreciation for the United States Flag on the part of Elementary Aged Students. Additional objectives include the ability to gain knowledge of flag etiquette and respect for the flag. Applications may be downloaded from www.ialegion.org/flag-essay.

Awards

Local and district contest awards, if any, will be the responsibility of the individual post and district. Each district finalist must be completed in time to be forwarded to The American Legion Department of Iowa Headquarters.

The Department finalists will be recognized in the same manner as other youth champions and will be invited to read their essay at the Department Convention. First, Second, and Third Place winners will also receive $500, $300, and $200, respectively from The American Legion of Iowa and American Legion of Iowa Foundation.

Contests

Local contests will be conducted and judged by the local sponsoring American Legion Post, and the winning essay, along with completed certification form, will be forwarded as follows:

1. Individual Legion Posts will forward one winning entry to their District Children & Youth Chairman with signed participation application postmarked by January 2, 2021. If the district does not have a Children & Youth Chairman, the District Americanism Chairman will suffice. Each section of the application must be thoroughly reviewed and completed by the deadline to be eligible for consideration. Failure to follow all direction will automatically disqualify an essay no matter how well written.
2. District entries will be judged by the respective District Children & Youth Chairman. The first-place district finalist's essay and completed application form will be sent to Department Headquarters, postmarked by January 22, 2021.
3. Department Children & Youth Committee will judge the nine district entries at Mid-Winter Conference, immediately following the Americanism meeting.

Please Note: A list of The American Legion Department of Iowa District Children & Youth Chairmen is available online at www.ialegion.org/flag-essay or upon request from Department Headquarters.
