How a Bill Becomes a Law

- Idea – A legislator decides, or legislators decide to sponsor a bill.
- Bill Drafting – The legislator(s) request the bill be drafted by the Legislative Services Agency
- Introduction – The bill is sent to the Senate or the House where it is assigned a number and is then sent to the President of the Senate or the Speaker of the House.
- Committee Assignment – The President of the Senate or the Speaker of the House refers the bill to a standing committee. A sub-committee, assigned by the standing committee, studies the bill and reports its conclusions to the full committee.
- Committee Action – The committee may pass the bill or pass an amended version of the bill. The committee may also send the bill to the floor without recommendation.

Standing Committees

- Senate – 17 Standing Committees
- House – 20 Standing Committees

Members of Standing Committees

- Chair – majority party
- Vice Chair – majority party
- Ranking Member – minority party
- Members – more majority than minority

Iowa Legislature

Sub-Committees

Once a bill is assigned to a committee, the committee chair appoints a subcommittee. The subcommittee is usually composed of three members of the standing committee.

- Chair – majority party
- Vice Chair – majority party
- Ranking Member – minority party

When The American Legion provides testimony on a bill, it is typically done in a sub-committee meeting.

Iowa Legislature

Sub-Committee / Committee

- The sub-committee reviews the bill in detail and reports its conclusions to the full committee.
- The full committee then discusses the subcommittee's conclusions and makes recommendations to the entire chamber.

- Calendar – The bill is placed on the calendar, a listing of all bills officially eligible for debate. At this time legislators may file amendments to the bill.
- Debate– The bill and any amendments filed are debated by the whole chamber. Amendments must be approved by a simple majority of those legislators voting.
- Vote – A constitutional majority, at least 26 Senators or 51 Representatives, must vote "Yes" for the bill to proceed to the second chamber.
- Second Chamber – The bill goes through the same process in the second chamber. If it passes in the second chamber without amendment, it is sent to the Governor. If the second chamber amends the bill it must be sent back to the chamber of origin for approval of those amendments. If the chambers cannot come to an agreement on the version of the bill, a conference committee is appointed.

- Conference Committee - Composed of Senate and House members representing both the majority and minority parties and both sides of the issue in dispute.
 - If an agreement is reached, it is presented to both chambers in a report, which cannot be amended, that contains the compromise version of the bill.
 - If the report is rejected by either chamber, a second conference committee may be appointed.
 - If no agreement is reached, the bill fails.
 - If the conference committee report is adopted, the chambers again vote on the bill. If the bill is approved, it will be enrolled and sent to the Governor.

- Governor's Action – After the bill passes both chambers in identical form, it is sent to the Governor. The Governor may:
 - Sign the bill
 - Veto the bill
 - Take no action on the bill

Iowa Legislature

- Iowa Law
 - The bill becomes law:
 - Upon the Governor's signature, or
 - After three days during the session if the Governor takes no action
 - Bills received by the Governor during the last three days of the session
 - Have to be signed or vetoed within 30 days
 - If the Governor takes no action on the bill after the 30-day time period, the bill is considered vetoed.
